

The total claims paid as a percentage of the budget for claims payment. To maintain the scheme's solvency level, this ratio should be about 90%. Currently we are using reserves to subsidize the claims payment. We are however using less reserves than budgeted, meaning that the Scheme's financial performance is better than expected.